Mastro was proudly introduced to first generation Italian households migrating to Canada in the early 1970s. Our old world recipes, and authentic, traditional methods create a unmatched flavour, giving our loyal customers a taste of home. Since then, Mastro has become the leader in the Italian deli market in Canada, serving second and third generation Italians and others who have discovered these delicious deli meats

Over the past 20 years, our quality and flavor has won us many fans in the US market and Mastro continues to grow and be recognized as a leading brand in North America.

All of our products are inspired by old world tradition, crafted with the highest quality ingredients, in a way that perfectly replicates traditional Italian processes, from our naturally aged Prosciutto and clay oven baked Mortadella, to our traditional and regional dry cured (never cooked) salamis,
